

A quick guide to setting up your integration

Important Note: Buildium integrates at the enterprise level ONLY. We cannot integrate individual properties. By enabling this integration, approved applicants within your property management company will be notified to create a PetScreening profile.

Follow the steps below to activate the integration in your PetScreening account.

Inside of PetScreening

1. You will receive an email from PetScreening to create a password for your user account.
2. Navigate to Settings > Integrations
